Ryu is a wimp. He's in over his head. We need a real councilman like Marvin Braude who thinks for his constituents like when he worked to close off Rockingham drive to through traffic when it became so congested from tourists seeking to view the home of O.J Simpson in 1994. Read the Times article

It is unfortunate for Beachwood and Hollywoodland that RYU is not delivering solutions as promised. Classic insider city politics. As for Lake Hollywood Estates, we made closure and restoration service demands, and Ryu responded by asking us specifically to deliver consensus. We did so with over 75% of our residents and the LHHA board asking him for the Vista to be restored and fenced to the curb to assure public safety for residents, hikers and the general public here.

Aside from increased enforcement on holidays, which fails every time, we have heard NOTHING from C4 as lawlessness and danger escalates. Yes, politics at its worst.

Other communities will see in time, when they ask for more serious solutions then street light repair that RYU will not make good on his word and promises. In fact, he will likely do to them what he is doing to all of us, GO dead quiet and do NOTHING. At that time more Voters can speak with potential recall.

Spring break is not that far away and traffic to the illegally developed tourist destination and trailhead will escalate further. Last year we at least had RAP's Mount Hollywood pilot and some closures to non residential traffic. This year it appears that we will have nothing as tourism is still C4's priority over public safety (another election and post election promise broken). The stale rationalization of not wanting to push problems from one location to another is not a solution when life and death are at stake.

It will be a shame when someone dies here, or if properties BURN, but it then will bring solutions. In my opinion one thing is perfectly clear, any deaths and loss of property from fire will be the responsibility of David E Ryu. LA city will then pay maximum liability compensation with our tax money, hopefully misconduct charges will accompany the compensation.

Keep focused on C4 as former CM LaBonge's alleged mis handling of documents is now coming into play with litigation against the city. All eyes need to remain focused on this district because some of Ryu's policy and spin appears to be consistent with LaBonge's regarding tourism's priority over public safety. The discussion of death and fire are unavoidable, and potential maximum liability for the city are in play from this districts incompetence. This very visible district requires the attention.

Thank you.

Thanks Rose and Heather and all who have contributed to this link. I'm going to get a 'safety committee' together with hopefully members from all the affected areas...but in the meantime this is a lot of good information.
I'm jumping the gun, but if I am the safety chair I'll get a meeting with Ryu and see what the plan is to help our neighborhood out immediately with Spring Break coming up.
Thanks again, jc

PS won't know about the safety chair thing until tomorrow night, but I really want to push getting some relief for our neighborhood in any event.

The city workers non compliance of laws is both criminal and shocking.

These servants are paid by us yet I've never seen a tax levied for lying, deceit, and abandonment.

Perhaps that's yet another free concession our City is giving us!

It will take work and funding, but misconduct charges need to be filed.

Thank you.

Many of you may not have seen the below email's Sunday, please read them now.

Before you read this, I'm, taking full advantage of free speech rights. Don't read it if don't want to hear an honest, albeit robust opinion.

I have to agree with Rose. Since no one from the city reads these or responds to you guys, I might as well say what the majority on this chain — even certain city employees listed – have told me that they think:

The only two balls that dangle in front of Ryu are named Sarah and Dusseault. Whenever Ryu has agreed with us in meetings, he's been verbally castrated by the Chief with, "Now that is NOT what David really means. THIS is what he really means..." Then more excuses and reasons for delay fly out. Never solutions. They don't have any — even after over a year and a half of knowing the biggest threat to public safety in our neighborhoods. Unbelievably, I credit the bombastic, self-promotional buffoon that preceded them with the where-with-all to shut down residential areas on weekends, especially holidays, due to the traffic and fire danger involved.

Ryu says his #1 goal is public safety, while his office sends out back-patting e-propaganda on all accomplishments EXCEPT public safety. Trust me, I dig to find one word about it.

Worst yet, they don't even have the basics in place, like a digital marketing management plan. Especially knowing geo-targeting, bloggers and websites are righteously growing crowds here by leaps and bounds. They predicate their posts based on the errant signage Ryu (Sarah) refuse to take down. It's no different than saying hey, "This way to FREE parking at Disneyland." And the city receives no revenue. Brilliant.

You'll hear, "We'll provide more enforcement." But that has been a disaster. It's about never being able to put enough bandages on a bleeding wound. Just hang out up on Dirt Mulholland or the Vista for awhile. It was so nuts, Ryu had to be police-escorted out of there on a holiday. Wish I could have the privilege of a police-escort. Others can pipe up for their areas.

Ryu and Barbie, er ah, the Chief, need to get with the program before, as Heather states, someone dies. I'm not sure if that will even matter. Our former unconscionable C4 leader while smiling placatingly told TJ Escott, "TJ, people die all the time."

Like most things, someone has got to die first before a stop sign at a dangerous intersection goes up. We've had three fires since the illegal non-CEQA-reviewed balding of the Vista — it's only matter of time before our homes go up in flames.

Hey media people what are you waiting for? Someone to die before this insanity is exposed??
